“We are too busy to take the time to apply for awards...”

“What benefit is there other than getting another plaque?”

If you have had those or similar thoughts about applying for FACP Awards, please take a moment to read the message below from Carol Roberts, President & CEO, of the Bay County Chamber.

“As a recipient of the Chamber of the Year award in 2004, 2010 and 2016, it prides me to bring this award home to my community. That recognition brings attention and a level of excitement to our organization by our members and the community at large.

We received multiple news stories throughout the panhandle of Florida and even by Governor Scott in person. Being recognized by your peers for outstanding business practices; organizational planning; financial stability and many more areas of involvement makes you stand out among the many competing organizations and Chambers. Being a 40 year Chamber veteran this one award in my opinion does more good for our organization than any other recognition that we could possibly obtain. I highly encourage all Chambers to apply! I assure you it will be worth the investment of time because everyone wants to be affiliated with an AWARD WINNING organization.” -- Carol Roberts, Bay County Chamber

The Bay County Chamber has also won numerous Communications Awards and Carol is a prior recipient of the Professional of the Year Award (now known as the Executive of the Year Award).
